

Kiley Gunter Wins Rockwood 2000 Scholarship For 2011

Kiley Gunter, daughter of James and Rebecca Gunter, is the winner of the Rockwood 2000 Scholarship for 2011. Kiley graduated from Rockwood High School finishing in the top five in her class, and has been accepted to Chattanooga State Community College. She plans to attend one year and then transfer to the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga for her degree.

Kiley was selected as the winner based on her academic achievements, community involvement and her leadership abilities. As she begins her college years, Rockwood 2000 is proud to assist her in furthering her academic goals.

Again, we want to congratulate Kiley on her distinguished high school career, and wish her continued success.
